

California State University, Monterey Bay
Student Organization Officer Eligibility Requirements
Revised February, 2017

The California State University Chancellor's Office defines minimum qualifications for student office holders through Coded Memorandum AA 2012-05 which can be found at:

<http://www.calstate.edu/AcadAff/codedmemos/AA-2012-05-attachment.pdf>.

At CSUMB, application and interpretation of these and other policies related to student leader eligibility is assigned to the President or designee. In accordance with these policies, student organization officers at CSUMB are defined as Presidents, Vice Presidents, Treasurers and Secretary of recognized student organizations.

To be eligible as a candidate or to hold any office in a student organization, a student must be in good standing with the university, and must not be on academic, disciplinary or administrative probation. Administrative probation includes, but is not limited to, probation with Student Housing & Residential Life and probation with any of the aforementioned umbrella or governance organizations.

Eligible officers must also maintain the following GPA and Unit requirements:

- A. Have a minimum cumulative campus and overall GPA of 2.3;
- B. Have a minimum 2.3 GPA in the term preceding the semester of candidacy/consideration for appointment;
- C. Maintain at least a 2.3 GPA for each term in office including the term in which they are elected or appointed;
- D. Maintain at least 6 units per term while holding office (3 for graduate students);
- E. Have earned no more than 150 units (50 for graduate students).

Cal State Monterey Bay Appeal Process

A candidate or incumbent who has been deemed ineligible may submit a written appeal to the President or their designee. The letter of appeal should address the following:

- A. reason the individual was deemed ineligible;
- B. actions, conditions, findings, and sanctions that led to the ineligible status;
- C. lesson(s) learned by the individual from the incident(s) or situation(s) that led to the ineligible status;
- D. the individual's plan of action and overall approach to fulfill the responsibilities of the desired leadership position(s) and return to a position of good standing.

If an appeal results in reinstatement of eligibility, it may include limitations, stipulations, and/or a behavioral contract. Such limitations, stipulations, or contract will only be in place as long as the original period of sanction. In terms of limitations, a student may be deemed eligible to pursue only one or a limited number of approved major leadership positions, but not deemed eligible to pursue all major positions. Violations of and condition of eligibility may result in immediate removal from candidacy or office. Such removal does not preclude further review of actions or sanctions through student conduct procedures or organizational review processes.
